THE CHAIR/COORDINATOR
History/Social Sciences Department
College of Liberal Arts/Arts and Sciences/Education

Dear Sir/Madam:

The Philippine Historical Association (PHA) will celebrate its 60th anniversary by sponsoring an international conference themed Historical Education in Asia: Issues and Challenges on August 27-29, 2015 at the University of Santo Tomas, Manila, Philippines.

Historical education, a broad field of research and learning which includes the teaching of history, harnessing historical thinking skills, training in historiography and dissemination of historical knowledge should be given priority in this fast changing world. In the age of globalization and with the ASEAN integration in 2015, historical education both in the local and regional levels require a convergence of ideas from historians, teachers, researchers and various practitioners related to the field of history.

In this regard, we would like to invite your school's history/social science educators to attend this conference. Deadline for pre-registration (with discount) is on June 30, 2015.

The conference program and other details are attached for your reference.

Should you need further details, you may contact Mr. Jonathan Balsamo at Mobile Number 0905-5762181 or email us at kasaysayan.ph@gmail.com .

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

DR. EMMANUEL F. CALAIRO
President, Philippine Historical Association

PHILIPPINE HISTORICAL ASSOCIATION

The Philippine Historical Association is a professional and honor association of historians, history teachers and researchers in the Philippines, founded in 1955 by a group of historians that include Encarnacion Alzona, Gabriel Fabella, Gregorio Zaide, Nicolas Zafra, Celedonio Resurreccion, Teodoro Agoncillo, Esteban de Ocampo and Fr. Horacio dela Costa. A non-stock, non-profit, non-sectarian and non-partisan organization, its main objective is to promote and propagate historical knowledge and studies through conferences, training programs and scholarly publications. It is affiliated with the National Historical Commission of the Philippines, the National Commission for Culture and the Arts and the Philippine Social Science Council.

CONFERENCE THEME: "HISTORICAL EDUCATION IN ASIA: ISSUES AND CHALLENGES".

Historical education, a broad field of research and learning which includes the teaching of history, harnessing historical thinking skills, training in historiography and dissemination of historical knowledge should be given priority in this fast changing world. In the age of globalization and with the ASEAN integration in 2015, historical education both in the local and regional levels require a convergence of ideas from historians, teachers, researchers and various practitioners related to the field of history.

In our time, historical education should be viewed in various levels and institutions of our society. From the individual to institutions, historical knowledge is practical not only to preserve identity in this generation but to promote unity in diversity. Promoting historical education enhances opportunities towards a better future of Asian nations. The international conference will provide venue for discussion on new historical studies, research, writing and teaching methods. In particular, the said international conference shall develop among the participants critical and deep understanding of new studies and researches on historical education, including strategies and methods in doing research, teaching and propagating historical, cultural and heritage studies.

REGISTRATION. Participation is open to all teachers, scholars, researchers here and abroad interested in historical education in Asia. Deadline for pre-registration is on June 30, 2015 (Note: Deadline for Cancellation/refund of registration: July 31)
